Myogi
Monday, Aug. 25, 1913.

There were meetings here in the monestery (jiin) at 9am, 11am and 7pm P.m. At 9am Father Kelley spoke on Bible study. At 11am it was an open conference conducted by Mr. Smith, on how to organize and conduct Bible classes. At 2:30 at 7pm P.m.

~~Myogi~~
Tuesday, ~~Aug. 26, 1913.~~

~~It began At~~ climbed the highest peak, Jengu San in P.m. with a number of others. At one place (Pigeon Back) we had to climb up by a rope. There were many steep and really dangerous places. From the top of some of the peaks we obtained most perfect and pleasing views. The atmosphere was as fine as it could be and we could see a far way. I do not want to make the trip again, but am glad I made it this time. We started at 2am P.m., and got back about 6pm P.m. A hot bath was ready for us on our return. At night we had another session at which Dr. Hail and Dr. Wainwright spoke.

Myogi — Karuizawa.
Tuesday, Aug. 26, 1913.

Did not get to write to Alice today. It rained all day until the P.m. Father Kelley again spoke in Y.M. and there was also an open conference. Father Kelley is an odd creature. He dresses in a gown always and seems a fanatic, but when he speaks he shows great learning and much good hard sense. I appreciate him more.

At a few minutes before 2pm P.m. Nepner & I left the monestery for the station to catch the 2.42 train for Karuizawa. Not knowing the short path by crossing the Ry bridge we went around the road, and missed our train by about 3 min. We then had to wait for the next one on which we reached Karuizawa at 7pm P.m., after stopping at Yokogawa which was as far as one train went. The trip from the station home was through hard rain. Completely wet, after walking it. I found three much appreciated letters here from Alice. One had come open on the way and was re-sealed at Tokyo, but one end was still open. I wonder if any one read it!

Karuizawa, Wednesday
Aug. 27, 1913.

Rained about all day. There were explosions at the volcano in P.m., which brought ashes to us. Secured Mr. Kenzo Sekiya of Meiji Gakuin to read and write letters for me in P.m. At night the Nielsens came and we played flinch. Recd. five letters from America — one from Mother. Alice will send no more letters to Karuizawa, but to Saga. Her last one here came quickly. The weather cleared off in evening. Trains were not able to come up the mountains for several hours in P.m.

Karuizawa
Thursday, Aug. 28, 1913.

In A.m. Mrs Brown went down street with me and helped me select some table cloths - cotton and some dishes. In P.m., Mr. & Mrs. Nielsen, Mr. Brown, Mr. Nepner & I climbed Fujimi, via Hog back mountain. We saw Fuji. I wrote to Alice at night. A fair day. Asama is still sending out some ashes, as far as Karuizawa. Girls now 12.30 at night — just finished a letter to Alice — 3 days late.

Karuizawa.
Friday, Aug. 29, 1913. Fine day

Wrote several letters in A.m. At 4pm P.m., went to tea at Mr. Winters, met many ladies. We did not go to Nosokawa today because Mrs. Nielsen & Mr. N. also, did not feel like going. After supper, I took the folks of our house to the Pharmacy and treated them to ice cream. Returning, I read through Mark Twain's: Capt. Stormfield's Visit to Heaven.

Saturday, Aug. 30, 1913 62° at 7.30 A.m.

Fine day. At 9:50 A.m. Mr. Brown, Nepner, Nielsen & I started for Nosokawa Iwa. We reached the chains at the place a few minutes before 12am and there ate our dinner. We then climbed to the top up the two long chains, and had a fine view. There are "some cliffs." Returning home, we tried to come a near way, but our path dwindled until we found ourselves in jungles of wild wisteria, briars, and the thickest imaginable undergrowth of all kinds. Traveling was most difficult, and for a time, we wondered, whether or not, we would not have to spend the night in the mountains. The wild was such as might be a good place for bears etc. We finally reached a place where two men were cutting grass from around forestry trees, and they were able to tell us where we could find a path, but this was so overgrown, that walking was difficult, but we were consoled that by following it, we would come out all right. The bushes being covered by volcanic ashes made our trip most dirty. We looked rough. Mr. Brown & Nielsen both fell down in a stream and branded the seat of their pants with mud.

reaching house, after we took baths and put on clean clothes, we felt better, but still very tired. A good supper helped the situation. In going over my pedometer registered 10 miles to the top of the rock but as there was climbing to do to reach it, possibly it was not more than 9 miles.

Karuizawa.

Sunday, Aug. 31, 1913.

Went to ch. in Am. and heard Rev. Berry of Toyama Gakuin preach a very good sermon. In P. M., I wrote to Alice. Went to vespers at 5 o'clock, and Mrs. Brown Conducted the services. At night we were in the house, finished reading Hugh Black's "Comfort." It is very good. Alfred & Marshall tried to hold me so that Mrs. Nepper could "spank" me with a strap and, even though my glasses were in the case in my pocket, one lens got broken by bumping around. They failed to get me, however. The weather looks cloudy, and I think tomorrow will be rainy. Dr. Oltmans called in P. M.

Karuizawa.

Monday, Sept. 1, 1913.

Spent the day in doing several things. Just before dinner, Mrs. Brown went down street with me to buy a center piece. The man brought some to us at night. At night, Mr. & Mrs. Winther and Mr. & Mrs. Nielsen came in, games were played and ice cream served, to celebrate Mr. & Mrs. Winther's 14th wedding anniversary. It became exceedingly foggy in evening. At night the volcano continued to explode for a long time, but it was too foggy to see the effects. Rec'd a telegram at night from Kawase, "Kesa angen shita toko." We hope this child will bring him and his wife closer together.

Karuizawa.

Tuesday, Sept. 2, 1913.

Rainy day. Went to dentist in Am. and he polished my filling. He put in recently, but said that another filling would be necessary to stop the pain where the enamel is worn through at one place, by the upper tooth. In P. M., Mr. & Mrs. Bates and Mr. & Mrs. Medding and Miss Thomas took tea here at the Brown's. Concert at night — our last, as we leave next Mon. Sent dunfo to Kawase San.

Karuizawa.

Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1913.

Did some banking. Settled for taxes and gift to Goto San, Mr. Miller's Musuban. Finished copying into new Treasurer's Book of Danish Mission. Also from 10 to 11 P. M., I made out report for Pres. to be sent to U.S. Board. Wrote to Alice — her birthday. Rained in evening. The Nielsens left for Karuizawa on the 8 P. M. train over Chosen.

Karuizawa

Thursday, Sept. 4, 1913. 58° at 11 Am.

Sent off a number of remittances today. In evening took a walk to the station and returning, saw a most beautiful view of Asama before the golden sunset. The crater was sending out a full volume of smoke so steadily that it seemed not to move scarcely at all. After supper, I went down to Fujiya's with Mr. & Mrs. Brown, and the boys and Mr. Nepper, and we all made orders of groceries. Mine amounted to nearly yen 19 00. It is quite cool.

Karuizawa.

Friday, Sept. 5, 1913 49° at 8 Am. 65° at noon.

Saw Miss Seeds off on the 11 35 train (Am.) A most beautiful day. Many people are off on tramps. Asama looks so near! Did a little shopping in P. M. Had the boys an hour for arithmetic, in Am., as usual. Pastor Kizer took supper here this evening, and I took him to the Manpei Hotel afterwards.

Karuizawa.

Saturday, Sept. 6, 1913 54° at 7 30 Am.

Sent off some money — three remittances, and paid Mr. Nepper & Brown in Am. In P. M., did a little reading and played tennis which made me very tired. Mrs. Brown bought a silk scarf for me, which I asked her to get. A little rainy at night.

Karuizawa.

Sunday, Sept. 7, 1913.

The day was rather cloudy. Went to morning and vesper services. Rev. Curtis of Chosen spoke in Am. and Rev. Schaffer at vespers. Wrote to Alice at night. Dr. Oltmans took dinner with us. A letter from Nystrom & Co., Chicago, states that they were disappointed to find that Montgomery Ward & Co., had not sent the maps, but were holding them to be sent with an anticipated order for goods from me. Nystrom & Co. then ordered them sent, at once, without other order.

Karuizawa.

Monday, Sept. 8th, 1913.

The thermometer stood at about 64 in Aun. at breakfast. Attended to a number of things during the day, ever making a few final purchases. Drew out the rest of my bank deposit and gave Mrs. Winther yen 90 on next month. Paid for my 4 carved tables and in evening, when Mr. Hepner & I started off, I shipped the tables and 3 other pieces of stuff to Saga by freight. Mr. Hepner & I left on 8:18 P.M. train for Kami Kumamoto, via Chuo Sen. Expect to reach Kumamoto Wed. evening at 9:02. Changing cars at Shimonosi, we had to wait an hour. The Karuizawa community is thinning out. The usual Tues. night concert, was held tonight, because of many people leaving tomorrow. Saw the Brown boys good bye as they are to stop at Kobe, and later school there — at the Canadian Methodist school for foreign children. A little warmer today.

— Nagoya — Kobe —

Tuesday, Sept. 9, 1913.

We were able to see a part of the Chuo line scenery after daybreak. It was very good. Reached Nagoya at 10:55 A.M. and left at 11:20. We went on to Kobe which we reached at about 6:30, and left at about 10:30. We took the reclining seat car — two uppers each. During the day I wrote to Alice, and also to Miss Alice Coffman in answer to her letter. At Kobe we did a little shopping at night. Bought some fruit etc.

— Shimonoseki — Kumamoto.

Wednesday, Sept. 10, 1913.

Reached Shimonoseki at 2:20 A.M., and left Moji at 3:20 A.M., reaching Kumamoto at 9:30, being about 20 min. late. Mr. Horn met us at the station. It was a bad rainy night, and we had difficulty getting to Kumamoto.

Kumamoto.

Thursday, Sept. 11, 1913.

Mr. Hepner insisted that he go to the second hand book store in Aun., which we did, in the hard rain; but he was disappointed at the high prices. The streets were almost like rivers on our return. Took tea at the Horns in P.M. Read some mail in Aun. Found a letter from Alice which I did not find last night, ~~and one more came in later~~.

Kumamoto.

Friday, Sept. 12, 1913.

Spent most of the day packing some things which I must take to Saga tomorrow. Yesterday evening went with Mrs. Horn and Mr. Hepner to see some houses which Mrs. Hepner thought of renting. None suited but one near Ryushin Gakuin, and he will inquire more about that tomorrow. Had Mr. Makino do some writing for me.

Kumamoto — Saga

Saturday, Sept. 13, 1913.

Did some errands on the street and after doing some more packing, which I could not do last night, on account of callers, I got ready and left on the 12:20, noon, train for Saga. I was surprised to find a large number of persons at the station to see me off. At Saga, I found a number to welcome me. Mrs. Clarke, Harvey and Josephine were on the same train going to Sasebo. I found two letters here from Alice. I especially appreciated them. Rather rainy day.

Saga.

Sunday, Sept. 14, 1913.

A rainy day. Went to church in Aun. and to Kosherya machi chapel at night. In P.M. I wrote a long letter to Alice. Arriving here I found Terada San, the teacher secured for the Hakata gochiku. She is ready to go there whenever I tell her to but I wish to go first to arrange.

Saga — Hakata — Saga.

Monday, Sept. 15, 1913.

Left on the 7:59 A.M. train and went to Hakata returning on the 3:29 P.M. train. While in Hakata, I saw after many things but was able to settle just few. Terada San will live at the Yamanouchi's for a while at least. Will see later. Kawase's child which was born Sept. 1, died on the 12th. It seems that its birth did not bring the parents any closer together. Neither has its death. I fear greatly for that couple. At night, I was given a welcome meeting here in Saga, at Konaya Machi. I appreciated it and was glad to see so many out.

Saga.
Tuesday, Sept. 16, 1913.

Spent the whole day to 4½ P. M. cleaning house. Cleaned 4 rooms entirely. All was moved out and everything washed. Was very tired. Had the ojō san who kept Mr. Lippard's yard clean, help us. In P. M., Miss Terada went to Hakata. I took supper at the Reeks and spent the evening there. They want to have every Wed. night for social use.

Saga.
Wednesday, Sept. 17, 1913. (Had electric lights put in house today.)

In Fore. went out and did some banking. On my return, I found that the funeral of Kawase's child had been changed from 2 P. M., to 12 M., on account of possible rain. It was then 10 min. of 12. I hurried on to the Honmura yakata, and the party was just arriving. I invited the folks from Hakata home with me and they came. They were Mr. & Mrs. Yamauchi, Kawase, Kawase's wife's mother, Somitado, and —— ? They took supper with me and returned to Hakata on 7.13 P. M. train, except Mr. Yamauchi who stayed over. He had me write a letter for him to Mrs. L. S. C. Miller.

Saga—Ozi—Saga.
Thursday, Sept. 18, 1913.

Mr. Kitakoga and I left on 7.55 Fore. train for Ozi which we reached at 8.25. We went to the P. O. where I mailed my life's sketch to the Saga Commercial School, having forgotten to send it before leaving Saga. We called at Jochien and then went to call on Mr. Matsunaga out in the country. He was absent but we went in and talked to his wife awhile. We then called to see Mr. Fukuyama, but he was out. Then we called on Dr. Shigematsu, Isaka the marimonoya and Mr. Takashima, the mayor, after eating lunch at the Jochien, with Nonaka San and Ito San. We all four then went to see the Jochien's new building. Decided to make three changes in the building itself — small changes, and to have some shrubs along the hedge fence in front. We returned by the 5.02 train reaching Saga about 6 P. M.

Saga.
Friday, Sept. 19, 1913.

In Fore., I tried to set some things in order in the house. and at 1 P. M., Mr. Yamauchi called. Then Wada San called. Had a talk with Hattori San in Fore. She wants more salary. From 2 to 6 P. M., Wada and I made calls. We called at 30 places, or at least I used 30 cards. These are my introductory calls. Was very tired at night but enjoyed the English club at night. I outlined for them a course of monthly program. There were 7 who came. I think we can do some good this way. It is the club which the Lippards had.

Saga.
Saturday, Sept. 20, 1913.

In Fore., Wada and I made 27 calls on members, Kyodosha, and friends. Was very tired at noon, so took a beneficial nap after eating. Woke up at 3 o'clock, and Mr. Tanaka and Mr. To(?) were here working in the library. I helped them, and we placed the books, but want to arrange them by subjects, soon. Ordered electric lights for Jochien teachers and Saitsu San (Risuban). I feel much work on my hands which I ought to get off but already have a week ahead of me laid out.

Saga — Omuta — Kumamoto.
Sunday, Sept. 21, 1913.

Had my Eng. class at church in Fore., and attended services. At 1.32 P. M., left for Omuta, taking Mr. Lippard's Victrola along for Mrs. Winther in Kumamoto. Mr. Hepner met me at Omuta, and after singing, an Eng. class and services, we left for Kumamoto, where we reached at 11.15 P. M. Mr. Hepner has moved into the house at Shikencho which Mr. Horn occupied, and Mr. Horn moved into the one at 434 Shinyashiki which I occupied until coming to Saga. At Omuta, we had a good large class.

Kumamoto.
Monday, Sept. 22, 1913.

I found a few letters here awaiting me, and one is from Mystrom & Co, telling me that the maps for Kyushu Gakuin had been shipped by Montgomery Ward & Co, at last. Will pack up today.

Kumamoto.
Wed. Sept. 23, 1913.

Did a bit of packing, and at 11 3a went to Kyushu Gakuin to receive farewell formalities, took dinner at the Brown's with Mr. Nepres, at at 1 3a went to the Commercial School to receive and give farewell. Spoke to the students. Mr. Shimizu went with me to make a number of calls on Comm. School teachers.

Kumamoto — Soga.
Thursday, Sept. 24, 1913.

Mr. Horn + I went out on the street and attended to many things in Kum. — Ordered P. Shoes to be made over, to have ledger blots erased, to have income tax rectified, etc. In P.M., went to Kyushu Gakuin to opening of Theol. Department, but had to leave before it was over. Left on five o'clock train for Soga.

Sun. Oct. 12 Saga - Ozi - Saga.
Went to S.S. + ch. in Am. and to Ozi in P.M. Had only 3 persons at latter place on account of Saga festival. It was market day in Ozi for Porcelain ware. The streets were full - S.S. children were scarce, as there were some slight of hand workers on the street.

Saga - Hakata - ~~Saga~~.
Monday, Oct. 13, 1913.
Wrote letters, etc in Am. and went to Hakata on 1.32 P.M. train. Had 6 girls in class in P.M., and about 6 young men at night. Mr. Yamaguchi tells me much about Kawase + his wife's troubles. They have decided to be divorced. She has various charges against him.

Hakata - Saga.
Tuesday, Oct. 14, 1913.
Left Hakata at 6.32 and reached Saga at 8.32. met Dr. Yoshioka on the train. At noon Mrs. Brown came over, and in P.M., he, Kitahara San and I went to Ozi to see the new Kochien building which will be completed in a few more days. Mrs. B. + I talked over many things until 10 P.M.

Saga.
Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1913.
Talked over many things until 11 Am. with Mrs. Brown when he left for Hakata, the chief purpose being to talk to Kawase about his purpose to divorce his wife. Saturday, Oct. 18, 1913.
Taught 2 hrs. in Comm. School in Am. As the third year students left this morning for Tokyo, I had one hour less to teach. The other two classes go to Fukoka next week and I will be free from school next week. A letter from the Kumamoto Seimusho asks me to produce proof that the Salary I receive from the Comm. School is deducted from the salary I receive from America. They are very skeptical, it seems. Spent most of P.M. and until 10.30 at night working out lessons for Comm. School. I decided on subjects for 30 weeks for the three classes — the 3rds, 2nds, 1sts. The 3rds class having two lessons a week. This means 120 lessons. I have finished 15 lessons for 1st year. Hope to finish the others next week. Had my first Eng. class at our Eng. Reading club this P.M.

Saga - Ozi - Saga.
Sunday, Oct. 19, 1913.
Had but 3 in class at S.S. Mr. Kitahara preached. At 2.30 P.M. 5 catechumens came to my home for examination for baptism. Wasa San, Tanaka San, and Hattori San and Matsui San also came. Those examined were: Yasunaga San, Yamasaki San, Eguchi San, Ogawa San, and Tsuda San - all ladies. The last named is from Hasu no ike. Went to Ozi with Kitahara San in evening. Had 7 in my class. A festival is going on and only a few children came.

Saga - Hakata.
Monday, Oct. 20, 1913.
Did several things in Am., and left on 11.56 Am. train for Hakata. Went to Dr. Kuninaga and had some work done on my tooth furthest back on the lower left side. He is treating the nerve. Then did a little shopping and then met my class of girls at the chapel. There were six. At 7.30 I had another class which lasted until after 9.30. Hereafter that will be two classes - one from 8.30, and one from 9.30. Started a letter to Alice before going to bed.

Kumamoto - Saga.
Wednesday, Oct. 29, 1913.

Attended meeting until 11.30 and then I went out to do a little shopping. Mr. Brown was cheated out of his time to discuss "Sin"; by Naomaru who took a long time give review "Christian Movement in Japan." Kyoiki Shakwai members took dinner with the teachers at Kyushu Gakuin. Then some of the men addressed the student body, and then a picture was taken of the Kyoekishakwai and the faculty. I did some banking and left on the 5.26 train for Saga. Just before leaving I gave Mrs. Brown a lot of clothes which she wished to use in making new ones for her boys. When I went to Kumamoto, I took oysters for Hepner and Browns. On my way to the station, I met the Smiths coming from the station. Did not have time to stop and speak. They arrived from America Oct. 21, Reached Saga at about 9.30 P.M. Almost saw two men fight in the car between Kurume and Iosu.

Had my S.S. class at church, and read the lessons for Mass at morning services. Wrote to mother in P.M. Mr. Wasa and Mr. Kitakoga called in P.M. Went to Ozi with Mr. Kitakoga in evening. We held our meeting in the new Kindergarten for the first time. It is not yet fully completed but we use it from now.

Saga - Kokura - Hakata.

Monday, Nov. 3, 1913.

Left on 9.55 and went to Kokura, ordered the tsumukuaisha to ship goods left there at home of Seikokwai pastor and the Nihon Kirisutokwai Ch., thence Mr. N. Takahashi to Ozi and to Saga. Reached Hakata at 6.00 P.M. Taught three classes. Naomaru Yamanouchi is here — was also in Kokura today.

Hakata — Kumamoto.

Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1913.

Left Mr. Yamanouchi's at 7.00 hrs., and went to the dentist. Left on 8.39 train for Kumamoto where I arrived at 12.12 noon. Conference (Joint) opened at 3.30. Mr. Nielsen preached the Sermon and then Mr. Smith and Mr. Hepner administered the Communion. Met the Smiths for the first time since their return from America last month. There was also a session at night. Same officers were elected. Brs. Horn & I were elected as a Resolution Committee. I had hoped to be relieved as treasurer, but was not.

Kumamoto.

Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1913.

Attended conference all day. In P.M. Mr. Horn read his paper and it was discussed at the P.M., and night sessions. It was a review of the book "St. Paul — his missionary methods or ours." The discussion was animated.

Kumamoto.

Thursday, Nov. 6, 1913.

Conference lasted until evening — about 6.00 o'clock. We had some discussion over the wording of certain resolutions. At night Mrs. Brown, Hepner & I held a meeting of our mission. We decided to dismiss Kawase, and give him Nov. & Dec. salary, dividing it between him and his wife — he 7.45 and she 7.0.

Kumamoto — Saga.

Friday, Nov. 7, 1913.

Did some banking in Frn., and at 11.00 Frn went with Mr. Brown to Kyushu Gakuin and we tried to decide where the Science Hall is to be located. Contract is to be let very soon. Left Kumamoto on 5.26 train. At Kuroha, I went in the benjo to clean my shoes, and my glasses dropped from my pocket and fell to the ground. 2 holes just as we were going out from the station. I had the train man telegraph back there and have them found, and he did so, but they were not found. Lunch 2 hours from Kido on my return.

This A.M. Hepner made me tell him whether the picture hanging over my mantlepiece was Alice's or not. He has been suspecting that she and I are friends. Rev. Black in Charleston gave him the hint. I stopped with Black when in Charleston last Feb. when I called on her. Worked on Treasurer's books until noon, and in P.M. also. A fine day. Mr. Tanaka came to do some writing for me at night. At 11⁰⁰ P.M., Mr. Hepner and I went to Mr. Wasa's where a prayer meeting was held as the old year ~~[illegible]~~ went out and the new one came in. Sent off many cards and have already received some.

The year is passed and many blessings have been mine. It has been most busy. I was disappointed in the summer, in not getting married, but circumstances determined that, and while it was postponed one year, I hope it to be realized next summer.
